

WORK PROFILE – RAGHAV KAPOOR
CORPORATE LAWYER | LL.M. CFS-NUS

A. Corporate & Commercial laws:

Non-contentious matters, possess a complete big law firm experience in drafting, vetting, revising and negotiating a variety of agreements including definitive agreements for M&A, vendor distributorship agreement, media consultancy agreements, non-disclosure agreements, employment agreements and cross-border dealership agreements for leading MNCs and corporate houses in South & South-East Asia, and also advisory for regulatory and corporate compliance for setting up business in India.

B. Corporate Disputes Resolution:

Contentious matters, having worked an independent legal counsel, possess strong yet diverse range of experience in commercial, corporate and civil disputes resolution matters. An active litigator, representing big companies for corporate insolvency, stake-holders disputes, corporate compliance disputes including obtaining court- sanctions for corporate re-structuring, mergers, scheme of arrangements before the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT). Strong focus on commercial disputes and civil disputes on range of cases including breach of contractual terms, recovery, specific performance, employment, intellectual property rights & consumer laws. Have also served as a legal advisory to tech- start-ups; advising on day to day operations of business, employment issues and for mitigation of exposure to legal risk.

Skills & abilities;

- Have independently appeared and argued before Supreme Court, High Court, district courts, Corporate & Regulatory Tribunal, Arbitration Tribunal and Mediation Centres among many others;
- Possess a broad range of work experience across various sectors of law;
- Strong analytical and drafting skills drafting skills for both transactional and court documents;
- Possess experience of direct client interaction, client building and relationship management;
- Excellent command on spoken and written English and Hindi.

Raghav Kapoor

Master of Laws, (Corporate and Financial services)
National University of Singapore